

Become a Friend of the GSO

The
GARLAND
Symphony
Orchestra

Your tax-deductible donation to the GSO goes towards the many costs of putting on a season of stunning symphonic works. Learn about our Donor Benefit Levels below and consider becoming a Friend of the GSO!

2025-2026 Friends of GSO Donor Benefit Levels

Presto: $5000 and up

- Name recognition in GSO concert programs
- Complimentary intermission refreshments at GSO concerts
- A GSO gift
- Invitation to post-concert GSO receptions (beginning January 2026)
- Invitation to a post-concert dinner with Maestro Robert Carter Austin and guest musicians.

Allegro: $1,000 to $4,999

- Name recognition in GSO concert programs
- Complimentary intermission refreshments at GSO concerts
- A GSO gift
- Invitation to post-concert GSO receptions (beginning January 2026)

Moderato: $500 to $999

- Name recognition in GSO concert programs
- Complimentary intermission refreshments at GSO concerts
- Invitation to post-concert GSO receptions (beginning January 2026)

Andante: $250 to $499

- Name recognition in GSO concert programs
- Complimentary intermission refreshments at GSO concerts

Adagio: $100 to $249

- Name recognition in GSO concert programs

Largo: $25 to $99

The Garland Symphony Orchestra is a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and all donations made to the GSO are tax deductible. Please donate by contacting Andrew Flory at gm@garlandsymphony.org or call 972-926-0611.